SEPTEMBER2018

Commander's Message

I thought July would last forever, meetings, convention, mouse race, the discussion about the reinstatement of the guest register to comply with the rules concerning our tax exempt status, and now it's half way through August and this is the September newsletter!

Well, here's my report, I hate River Cut Golf course, got some guidance on our tax exempt worries, met some great people dealing with the same challenges we are, and heard reports on committees I did not know about for 2 hours. Mouse race was again a great success, much fun and laughter, the ladies did very well with the silent auction and food and the bar turned a tidy profit, all in all a really great fun day. I'm sorry if you missed it. Installation dinner was very nice with about 60 members showing up for a nice meal catered by Vinny's and Donnie Basler acted as our installation officer and did his usual fine job.

Last up for August, The Post Golf Tournament, you are almost out of time to get your team together. If you think about golf at all play this one, it is well organized, good course and lots of prizes for all skill levels, a great time will be had by all.

And now, September, two big events, Bike Fest and the Fashion Show.

The Riders have made our Post a passport stop again this year. We will be seeing 300 to 700 new faces passing through, all potential new customers and members over Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Friday Bike Parade from Camdenton VFW to our Post will bring a crowd of up to 200 bikes around 100 PM, it should be something to see. Don't forget the Riders are selling raffle tickets for $10.00 for a week in Vegas January 23-30, Wednesday to Wednesday, plus a $350.00 visa gift card. There are only 500 tickets, so pretty fair odds. Also on sale, raffle tickets for a 9mm Taurus automatic for $5.00 each or 5 for $20.00. They are selling all they can on that one.

The Fashion Show is on September 10. This is the big one for the ladies and I am sure it will be an amazing success as usual. Get your tickets soon as they are going fast and always sell out. Come see the meeting room transformed into an elegant salon for one day, it is quite a sight. Thank you ladies.

God bless America
Mark

Fall is finally here, can't believe it.

In the last monthly meeting the Auxiliary decided to start the Ex-Board meeting at 6:15 PM, more in line with our Veterans schedule. So mark your calendars ladies.

The Fashion Show is Sept 10, doors open at 10 am. The Fashion Show Committee has been working hard to make this the best this year, I hope you all have a ticket because the food will be delicious, the fashions great, and the Company of friends will be fantastic. Several District and Department officers will be present. Tickets are still available, call Debby Sutton, 573-374-9199; Betty Hovey, 573-374-8235; or Sheila Marlow, 573-734-0654.

Sheila Marlow would like to thank all those who contributed to the Bakeless Bake Sale. It was a great success this year. Many of our Auxiliary members use to be involved in the past can't help out as they did in the past so they donate instead. All of your contributions this year are greatly appreciated.

The Silent Auction was a great success! The Tablet brought in $622 and the Auction brought in $2,387 with a grand total of $3009. Thanks to Sheila Marlow, Betty Hovey, Genny Rieckoff, Pauline Evans, Shirley Dull, Retta, Morton and Janice Southerland.

This year the Auxiliary created the Kitchen Committee, which meets the last Monday of each month at 1 pm. Anyone who works in the kitchen needs to attend to set up menus, discuss any issues that may have occurred the previous month like supplies, teams and schedules. If anyone would like to help in the kitchen you are more than welcome to attend, it is a good way to see what it is like to work in the kitchen. We can always use extra help.

Up coming events:

Sept 10: Fashion show doors open at 10 AM

Sept 14 & 15: Bike Fest, Saturday & Sunday. Breakfast will be served by the Auxiliary both days. Shirley Dull and Anita Honhecker volunteered, thank you ladies.

Oct 26-28: Fall conference, Jefferson City at Capital plaza

Feb 15-17, 2019: Spring Conference Jefferson City at Capital plaza

Oct 18-20, 2019: Fall Conference Jeff City, Capital plaza

SAL

Don't miss our Rib-eye Dinner on September 12. Steak, baked potato, salad and dessert for $13. We only ordered 70 so get there early and make sure you get one! Thanks to all who came out and helped or ate at our August meal. It was great to see three new Sons at our last meeting. Welcome to Joe, Ted and Marvin! We are always looking for new members. If you are the son, grandson, or great grandson of a veteran, join and help us support the folks who sacrificed for us!

Bar Committee

As you can see we have a Scratcher machine with 12 different games. It also has the capability of buying all the Lotto games in one place. Look for more new things to come.

The IRS requires that all nonmembers sign in. There is a guest book for this. When you bring guests into the post, please have them sign in. This will enable us to maintain our tax-exempt status.

We need to remember we are all there to enjoy ourselves. One way to do this is to respect each other. The bartenders and volunteers are working hard to keep our post one of the best. Please respect their time and effort.
